

R-1335 (4/97)

Louisiana Department of Revenue and Taxation
Sales Tax Division
P. O. Box 201
Baton Rouge, LA 70821-0201

Exemption Certificate Number
(Issued by the Department)

Certification of Sales Tax Exemption for Commercial Fishermen

Holder must be a bona fide resident of and domiciled in Louisiana

Date of issue _____ Expiration date _____

This certifies that (Name) _____

(Address, city, state, ZIP) _____

is the holder of a valid Louisiana commercial fishing license and is the owner/operator of a vessel predominantly and principally used for commercial fishing, which bears the following registration/document number, _____, and vessel name, _____, and is entitled to the exemption from Louisiana sales and use taxes provided in Louisiana Revised Statute 47:305.20, described on the back of this form. This certificate is nontransferable and will expire before the expiration date listed above, if the holder no longer qualifies for this exemption.

Louisiana Department of Revenue and Taxation

NOTE: The expiration date listed above is the same as your commercial fishing license expiration date. When this certificate expires, you must return it to the Department of Revenue and Taxation and then reapply for the exemption. You will be issued another exemption certificate if you qualify.